The secretary of transportation worries that electric and hybrid cars are too quiet, presenting dangers to pedestrians and cyclists. He wants manufacturers to make these cars noisier.

How about a musical device under the hood playing U2's song "Beautiful Day"? It can fill us with optimism as we fight climate change before we run out of luck. It's not hopeless. Don't let beautiful days get away.

Call your congresswoman and the White House (202-456 1111) and ask them to support Vermont Sen. Bernie Sanders' climate-change legislation.
