

Stamp your feet!

Sadly, Business Columnist Chris Tomlinson concludes by saying, "... no one believes the current U.S. Congress is ready to consider a carbon tax." I much prefer Peter Pan's ending: "Do you believe in our form of government? Then clap your hands, stamp your feet, pick up your phone and let your senators and representatives know they need to enact carbon fee and dividend legislation immediately."

And business leaders who support our "simple, practical solution" don't have to assume "politics are getting in the way of doing the right thing." Business leaders can join Citizens' Climate Lobby, too. Time to end passivity, make some noise and save our government.
